

HARINGEY BOROUGH POLICE SENIOR MANAGEMENT TEAM

Dave Grant, Borough Commander

Chief Superintendent Dave Grant joined Haringey as Borough Commander in July 2008.

Chief Superintendent Grant has generally been involved in uniform policing, but has also undertaken project work in Disaster Management and the Policing of Mental Health. Prior to joining Haringey, Chief Superintendent Grant was Borough Commander for Redbridge.

Nick Simpson, Detective Superintendent

Detective Superintendent Nick Simpson joined Haringey Borough in December 2001 and is currently responsible for the borough's Priority Crime Teams and Intelligence.

Detective Superintendent Simpson has worked most of his career within the CID, in North London, and the Directorate of Professional Standards. Whilst at Haringey, his areas of responsibility have included; the Borough Task Forces, Crime Squads, Reactive Street Crime Investigation and Intelligence.

Ron Shanks, Detective Chief Inspector

Detective Chief Inspector Ron Shanks came to Haringey Borough on promotion to Chief Inspector in November 2005 and is currently in charge of Reactive Policing.

He has spent most of his career in the CID working in Central and North London where he had responsibility for Burglary and Street Crime Units.

Jon Williams, Chief Inspector

Chief Inspector Jon Williams joined Haringey in October 2007 and is currently in charge of Safer Neighbourhoods.

Chief Inspector Williams joined the MPS in 1987 and has worked at Enfield and in Central and North West London. He has also worked for the Public Order Branch at both Hounslow and Gravesend, and was previously in charge of Haringey's Professional Standards Unit.